View of the island of Lerou, one of the Dodecanese islands, which the Italians term the "Heligoland of the Aegean." The island was taken by Italy in 1912 from Turkey, and heavily fortified. Now Turkey is thinking of taking it back while Italy is engaged in Ethiopia. However, the island is predominantly populated by Greeks and Greece believes that in case of a redistribution she should be given the islands.

This Little Lady Gets Younger Every Year

Fannie Ward, the little lady, who seems to have learned the secret of eternal youth, pictured on her arrival as she left from Europe on the liner Bremen. She was accompanied by her daughter and son-in-law, Lady and Lord Trenchard Conghaugh Plunket.

Here's a New Musical Instrument

The solfa, a new musical instrument invented by Hans Kautschbach of Berlin, is here shown. It can be operated either by blowing through the rubber tube or by a bellows. The solfa is intended to supply a demand for a long-pierced musical instrument for homes.

 survive it.

Whom have we here?
 We have Philo.
 Who is Philo?
 Philo is a yacht-
 man.
 How do you know
 Philo is a yacht-
 man?
 Because he looks
 so worried and has a yachting cap on.

Why is Philo worried?
 If you had a yacht you would be worried, too.
 What is there about yacht ownership to worry a man?
 You don't know the half of it.
 But isn't a yacht supposed to be an instrument of pleasure and contentment through which one finds and ceases from all care?
 Yeah, that's what it's supposed to be.
 Then why not in Philo's case?
 Because this is one of those you when half the yachtsmen in the country don't know where the next shore is coming from.
 Is the shore after Philo?
 If he isn't, then Philo is the exci-
 tion.
 But if Philo can't afford to run
 a yacht why does he put it overboard?
 He had an idea it would be hard for his creditors to find the best conclusion that if he left it on a ways.
