

2009

Rylan Borrer was hired by the Career and Technical Education Center at Putnam/Northern Westchester BOCES to teach physical education and health education.

Tara Peterson Kennedy '09, left, and Tara Vasilakopoulos Tully '13 have gone from Cortland Red Dragons to Carle Place Frogs. Both teach at Carle Place (N.Y.) Middle/Senior High School. Together they hosted a "Battle of the Classes" to raise money for Pompe Disease research to benefit a community member with the genetic disorder.

Jonathan Minter '09, M '11 was promoted to research chemist at Indium Corporation's Clinton, N.Y. facility, where he has worked since 2015. He is responsible for applied research and development, especially as it relates to new flux formulations for solder paste, and will provide support to the company's sales and production staff.

2010

Scott Budelmann C.A.S. '10 was named

Kensuke featured in the Times for his Americanize the culture at Japa universities. He Dome Corporat official licensee of Under Armour to create the atmosphere of schoo around college athletics similar to experienced at Cortland.

Mitch Reynolds '10, director of the operations for the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs helped lead the team to a Super Bowl February. Mitch does important behind scenes work for the Chiefs, including orchestrating travel for players, coaches and other gameday staff.

2011

Jeremiah Best '11, M '15 was featured Adirondack Express news story celebrating five-year anniversary of a partnership between the Town of Webb (N.Y.) Union Free School District and SUNY Cortland's Huntingto Memorial Camp at the William H. Parks Center for Environmental and Outdoor