

Carle Place High School Key Club Gives Back to Sandy Victims

The Carle Place Schools Key Club collected 594 donations to help Long Islanders recover from the devastation of Hurricane Sandy. Items included: paper towels, toilet paper, baby wipes, diapers, blankets, towels and coats from students, faculty and community members. All donations were delivered directly to families in need from Breezy Point and Long Beach.

