

Key Club Serves Community

Members of the Carle Place High School
Key Club recently visited the Ronald McDonald House in New Hyde Park. Students took a tour of the facilities and prepared dinner for more than 80 guests.
The Ronald McDonald House of Long Island is a home-away-from-home for families of seriously ill children undergoing critical medical treatment in area hospitals.

—Submitted by the Carle Place School District